During the COVID-19 National Public Health Emergency (PHE), protecting patients, providers and staff from the spread of the virus is vitally important. CMS has enabled this by temporarily expanding the services that may be delivered via telehealth. Services in white are on the approved 2020 telehealth list. Services highlighted in blue are approved to be furnished via telehealth for the duration of the PHE. Telehealth requires real-time audio and video.